

The image shows the front cover of a sketchbook. The cover is made of a dark brown, textured material that looks like leather or faux leather. It has a vertical crease down the center, suggesting it might be a flip cover. The text "Sketch Book" is printed in a large, black, serif font, centered on the cover. The word "Sketch" is on the top line and "Book" is on the bottom line. The cover also features some decorative stitching along the edges and a vertical strip of material on the right side.
