Lionel J. Lyttlewhakker: Last Will and Testament

1 I am Lionel J. Lyttlewhakker, and this is my last will 2 and testament. My wife passed, and my lovely
3 granddaughter was cruelly taken from us many years ago,
4 leaving me with one lone family member remaining - my 5 son. To my son, whom I have not seen in several years,
6 I leave, this spoon.

8 If only my son had not lost his only child all those 9 years ago, I would have a loving relative to whom I
10 could leave my estate. Alas, with no family to speak
11 of, the remainder of my estate shall be split evenly
12 among those I have grown closest to in my waning years - 13 my staff. My nurse, Roy, my cook, Millie, my 14 Accountant, Geraldine, my gardener, Botan, and my 15 housekeeper, Francoise.

16

17 However, one of my staff has not been as loyal as I
18 thought. Recently, one of my prized possessions went 19 missing, so I fear that one of those I have grown
20 closest to has been stealing from me.

21

22 With my dying breath, I shall uncover the thief, to whom 23 I bequeath a long prison sentence, while those who have 24 been loyal shall enjoy the spoils of my sizable estate.
